Ireland: A Terrible Beauty [Oct 21, 1975] Uris, Leon

Really interesting book. Photos and description of Ireland - religion, culture, etc. - at that point in time are excellent. Loved "Trinity" and this book really complements it. I always recommend "Trinity" to people who ask about the history of Ireland. It covers the entire 900 years of British rule and its aftermath extremely well.

Great pictorial and commentary on the land that inspired the two inspiring novels "Trinity" and "Redemption"

Wonderful book and it arrived in great condition.

The book was exactly as described. I haven't found anything to complain about, and I'm a pretty fussy buyer, even when it's used.

It was this book that inspired me at the age of 13 to be a photographer. Now in my fifties, I never tire of falling into Ms. Uris' captures of Ireland, its people and the amazing landscapes. Such an apt title.

The title said it all !Great pictures and the front cover,I have walked that road many times.

Love the book, and the seller wrote a personal note on a piece of paper thanking me for buying the book. That was very nice!

I lost this wonderful book and found it again on , thanks to a dear friend's suggestions!!! Anyone who has been to Ireland or wants to get there in their lifetime, must get this book !
