Not worth the money. I've been to Paris multiple times and thought this pocket map would be good to have, but it's very difficult to read. I tried using it a couple of times, but it was useless since I couldn't read the teeny tiny words on the map. And, when you're "lost", you don't have the luxury of sitting down and pouring over the map to figure out where you are in relation to where you need to go. The basic metro map that I picked up (for free) in the subway was a better help than this map.

I ordered three popout maps for a recent EU trip and this one was the least useful. The subway map is really out of date (or just missing stuff). Admittedly, Paris is a gigantic city, but there's no excuse for something basic like the metro map not being reliable.

There's nothing "trully" wrong with the map, But... Like a previous review said, the font is very small to read (I have perfect 20/20 vision). We found ourselves not using this map at all and instead relying on the free ones you get at the hotel. Bottom line, yeah it's compact and inexpensive but we still didn't get much if any use from it.

I Always buy PopOut maps everywhere they are available. Easy to carry around. No fuss to unfold or re-fold. They also have the metro routes which is a lifesaver. Highly recommend these maps for every trip. Compact and complete.

Type really is VERY small, even for young eyes. It's decent though and the fold out design is clever.

Fabulous little map, for those without wifi while traveling.

PopOut Maps are the best! And you don't look like a tourist! Fits in your pocket or purse....VERY Handy!

These maps are great fold up easily and fits in your back pocket. All in need is this map to get around while on vacation. Saves my phone battery by not always having to keep map app on and powered up.
