Customer Reviews

We thought we'd purchase this Map Guide for walking in the city of Dublin, but this is very time consuming to click on each numbered quadrant and then try to zoom in or out, or then go to another sector or numbered quadrant from the main map. It is difficult to see the whole map if you wanted to plan to go from one point of interest to see how you would walk to another point of interest, if that 2nd point of interest is not in the sector you are viewing. There are 35 numbered sectors from A1 to G5 to click on. Also the "main map" was no help, it's too small & not enough detail. In addition, our version is not displayed in the nice darker print that all Kindle items usually are. The maps are pale, in shades of gray and just plain DIFFICULT to use. Just two opinions here. We'll stick to the fold-out brochure maps which are quicker and you can see from Point A to Point B in the same view! We have the Kindle Keyboard 3G + WiFi, but it might look better on the Kindle Fire. Hope this helps.

Don't waste your money or your time. You can see only a tiny portion of the map at any time.

The map includes all pertinent details of the city, including of course, the streets, hospitals, shopping malls, businesses, museums and landmarks that you would otherwise not know about using a GPS system. If you have a GPS in your car, it's not much good if you're flying to different cities. These maps can be ordered ahead of time and just put them on your Kindle. I recommend this map to all travelers either for business, vacation or even if you live in the city.
