Richard L. Frey was the president of the International Bridge Press Association for nearly a dozen years. His articles on many nonbridge subjects have appeared in leading magazines. His daily newspaper articles on bridge appeared nonstop for a record thirty-five years. When the rank of Life Master was created, his name was one of the first chosen. Mr. Frey continues to be the most respected dean of bridge writers. He died in 1988.

Always a good reference. I bought it for my 99 year old mother-in-law who needed some refreshing of the rules for some card games they play in the retirement home.

Was a gift

Nice to be able to have the same book my father in law has that tells the rules for virtually any card game:)

This book was a wonderful guide for all of the card games I play. I recommend it highly

It was the book on card games that I was hoping it to be. No disappointment, thank you:)

Answered my questions about certain games.

A MUST for card players!

OK. Just too plain. Nothing like a book that I gave away many many years ago.
