Ready-to-Go!® Blank Board Products are a world of inspiration for papercrafters. Products are available in dozens of themes. No Prep work needed. Get ready to paint, journal, embellish, draw and more. Ready-to-Go!® Blank Board Products from C&T Publishing have been awarded the 2009 Disney Family Fun Boredom Buster Award.

Bought this to use in making a Christmas pop-up book based on the White Christmas movie. It was very sturdy. This book was a big hit. It had people had asking how I did it.

Thick but papery finish, not waxy. Not good for baby to chew on and be rough with.

Used this to make a photo book of family members for my baby girl. It was great. Covered it with contact paper. It is peeling a year or 1.5 later, but I am not sure if it was the blank board book's fault or user error.

Was exactly what I was looking for. Excellent to create your own book. We attached scrapbook paper and stickers to the book. The scrapbooks paper had to be attached with double sided tape in order for the book to remain somewhat flat when shut. I would not hesitate to purchase this exact product again should I need to make another board book.

Pretty simple design but worked great for the photo board book I made my niece.

I want to do collage. This book is working out great. It's true it doesn't have rounded corners, so if you really want that, get something else.

I used these blank board books to make special books for my 2.5 year old son and for blog activities. These are very easy to use and make things with, and sturdy. A little glue (or if you've got an older child, make a book for a new baby by coloring pictures for them) and some photos and you can have a really neat book. My son has one with objects around the house, as well as one with family members. We used them for language development.

Just as described. This book was perfect for my daughter's school project, where she had to write 5 poems.
