Will's Journey: Angels Of The Appalachians Book 3

Synopsis

When Annie, a recent college graduate, moves into an old farmhouse up Black Hollow Road, she develops a friendship with an elderly man named Will. As they prepare for an upcoming celebration, Will shares significant stories about his life that transports Annie on adventures that encompass historical events such as surviving the Elkhorn Flood of 1901, being stranded with the Lost Battalion in the Argonne Forest, witnessing the collapse of the Silver Bridge, and the tragedy that forever changed Marshall University. Tales from the past and from the present are woven together to ultimately offer readers a compelling picture of life in West Virginia, including occasional visits from the heavenly realm. Will's Journey (Angels of the Appalachians Book 3) renews the stories of Annie, Will, Erma, Pearl, and of course, Hank. If you enjoyed Angels of the Appalachians or Erma's Attic, you are invited to explore this story that spans across decades. If you haven't read the other books, don't fret, because you will still find yourself wishing to call on the fine folks of the Appalachian Mountains to meet some of the angels who live there. It's time to kick off your shoes, relax for a spell, and meet the fine folks who make West Virginia so gloriously wild and wonderful.

Customer Reviews

Without a doubt, this is the best historical series I've ever read. I believe that a movie of this series would be a HIT! She so skillfully brought the characters alive in such interesting detail...it's absolutely spellbinding from cover to cover...all three books in her series. I highly recommend it to fans of colorful, fascinating characters and true historical accounts.

Once again the story and characters are great. Will and his friends feel like my family now. I will miss the stories but look forward to the next series from Dee!

It is the end of a series of 3 books starting with two girls from a small town and where they went from there , great read , good story line , of two good friends and their life's journey

Enjoyed this book too. It was nice to know that there were actual places that really took place..makes me appreciate what I have.

great book could not put down

These books are so heartwarming and interesting. An outstanding author.

an okay book probably would not read any other books from this offer

The sweetest story it was an easy read but I wished it didn't end very good characters to hang out with on a lazy afternoon. Good book !
