I'm an adult and multi-instrumentalist who is teaching myself to play cello. The book is fine in that it expands your range from the first book. But, I was hoping for more songs. There are a LOT of technical exercises in this one.

This is my second book of this series. Very easy to read and understand. Lots of helpful information. More than one cello teacher has commented on how well put together these books are. Highly recommended.

Nice book, easy to follow and helpful.

It's indeed very good repertoire. Even if you go with Suzuki, this repertoire is still worth you time to at least review it.

My daughter plays cello in middle school orchestra. This is the required book they are using for the second year. Perfect. She enjoys playing from this book and it has helped her learn easily.

A very good book for beginners learning cello. I like the choice of digital download or a CD to accompany practice. It makes it fun to play. I would highly recommend this series!

This is the same book my grandson uses at the private school where he is taking cello lessons. The book seems to be clearly presented and easy to understand. I am very pleased with it.
