Customer Reviews

Excellent travel memoir about travel around the region in the title. It dates to 1910, and gives an interesting look at the area before WWI. It's a little rambling and goes off on tangents, but worth the read. However, the formatting is not so good. There's the usual sort of OCR scan problems, although that isn't too bad. There are also stray lines popping up and unfortunately, no working Table of Contents or chapter breaks. Still, worthwhile if you're interested in the area and/or American interactions in it (specifically missionaries).
