Customer Reviews

PreS-K • It's four days before Christmas, and 10 of Santa's elves have gone missing, causing chaos in the workshop. Santa sets off to find them. Readers are encouraged to find the elves (and Santa) in exotic locales around the world, from a safari scene and a fiesta in Brazil to a ski slope in the Alps and Rockefeller Center. Illustrated in the same highly detailed, chaotic vein as Where's Waldo?, 10 festive, colorful, and downright silly spreads will amuse and delight search-and-find enthusiasts for hours. VERDICT Best given as a gift book as there is a checklist of answers in the back. • Madeline J. Bryant, Los Angeles Public Library

'Humorous and fun, kids will love studying every page... a real hit at Christmas whatever your age' -- Inside the Wendy House 'A brilliant book... sure to bring hours of fun' -- Let Them Be

All the kids love looking through this around Christmas! It is fun looking for things with them.

My son (3 years old) loves the seek-n-find type books and this was right up his alley. We got it for him as one of his 25 books of Christmas and he loved it!

Great book, will be lots of fun to share with kids.

ADORABLE. FAMILY (ALL AGES) LOVED IT

My niece and nephew loved this book! They spent hours looking for Santa and his elves! Great gift idea for kids 4-70!
