Synopsis

Get ready for the greatest sports manga of all timeReads R to L (Japanese Style). Winning isn't everything in the game of basketball, but who wants to come in second? It takes dedication and discipline to be the best, and the Shohoku High hoops team wants to be just that. They have one last year to make their captain's dream of reaching the finals come true—will they do it? After watching a video of Sannoh's semifinal game from the previous year, the Shohoku players, except Sakuragi of course, are feeling nervous—three of Sannoh's starters this year played on that championship team. To make things worse, the stands are filled with Sannoh supporters eager to see their favorite rack up an easy win against Shohoku. But Coach Anzai's been here before and he knows his players, instructing them to lead off with a surprise attack that lets Sannoh know that Shohoku's in the house, and they aren't going out without a fight!

Takehiko Inoue is the creator of one of the most popular manga of all time, Slam Dunk, which has sold over 100 million copies worldwide. He followed that series up with two titles lauded by critics and fans alike—Vagabond, a fictional account of the life of Miyamoto Musashi, and Real, a manga about wheelchair basketball. Inoue is the recipient of numerous awards, including the prestigious Tezuka Osamu Cultural Prize and the Media Arts Festival Award. In addition to his work on manga, Inoue has worked on television commercials, character designs for video games, and is the founder of a scholarship to foster Japanese basketball talent.

I love Slam Dunk so much but it took so long to finally fully publish over here. This is a great series and although the drawings are older, the story is so funny you won't be able to put this book down.

I love this Manga series.

For the love of basketball and manga, "Slam Dunk" is seen as a classic! The thrill of basketball competition is alive and active in volume 25 of "Slam Dunk". In this latest volume, we get to see how the guys are not going to get any easy breaks after their last win, because next up is last year's champions, the pinnacle of Japanese high school basketball, Akita. The guys are Sannoh Kogyo. As any team who is studying the top team may feel underwhelmed by their scoring prowess and defense, Shohoku knows they are the underdogs, that people will rally against them and are not expected to win or do well against Sannoh. But the guys must drum up their confidence that they can beat Sannoh Kogyo and bring it to the basketball court. And to see the guys go from bummed out to seeing the spark in their eye as they know they are going to have to put it all on the line to beat this top team is exciting! As this volume sets up the competitive battle between both high schools, the cool part is just seeing the team dynamics and also seeing Sakuragi showing off but also discovering more about himself as a player. He has been the wild card of Shohoku, but may prove to be their awesome weapon. But that remains to be seen! As for the manga series, Takehiko Inoue's illustrations have always been a highlight for me and I was always amazed of how he captured movements of basketball. From the layups, the dunks, the defensive coverage and just the feeling of basketball, he captures it so well in the pages of each manga release. So for any "Slam Dunk" fan, this is a pretty awesome volume and definitely exciting as the guys must take on the best ranked team at the tournament in order to accomplish their dream! If you love basketball and you love manga, "Slam Dunk" vol. 25 is recommended!
