Marilyn Scott is a professional artist who works across a wide range of media. She studied painting at the Guildford School of Art and the Royal Academy of Painting in London. She is a respected practical art author.

My ceramics teacher said he wished his college textbook had been this accessible. There's so much to learn in here, and it's very readable with wonderful color photos. I got a lot of decorative ideas, as well as helpful information. I'm so glad to have my own copy.

nice size, information photographs and explanation. Really nice book, I am really happy with it. Nice way to discover pottery before you set up a pricey studio Lovely book with many pictures and instructions. Just what I needed!

I majored in Art Education, and had several pottery classes. Everything seems to be covered in this little book. I guess I need more books to refresh my memory.

The book is perfect for an art teacher. I bought this for a friend who will be teaching ceramics for the first time, to elementary students. The instructions are excellent and easy to follow. The illustrations are particularly helpful.

nice reference book and good read

Very detailed and makes for good reference material as to the different types of firing there are. Also gives specifics as to the different types of clay and techniques.

Awesome!!!
