Customer Reviews

Love her books -- been reading all of them.

More emergency room incidents, with the attendant humor, horror and pathos loved it

I read this in two nights as I bombed right through it. I loved the stories and the way they flowed Worked in ER for 30 years. Brings back MANY memories. Love it!

Oh boy! Another great book by Kerry! I actually wait with baited breath for each new book as it comes out. If you want to read a great book (and learn something too) this is the book for you. Her humor is great, down-to-earth, and funny. The writing of her book is the best. No losing your place over misspelled words, long sentences, or "what?". I hope she keeps up the great work. Okay, Kerry, here I am...waiting with baited breath for the next one. :-)

I can't get enough of your books!!! So far I've read this one and a few others that I'll leave a review for as well. I'm a registrar and work in the ED and these stories couldn't be more real even if the stories have been depicted. I guess once you work in the department you gain the understanding of what being patient is even though you want to lose your mind. I can relate to every single story and it's not so much because I have no compassion; I love my job, but working in the ER you have to have a sense of humor otherwise you'll end up in "zone 4" our psych corner. Please keep these books going, I haven't read them all but when I do I want more to read!

She admits she is not a great writer. The stories were interesting enough if not a little hard to believe. Somehow, though I got hooked and read them all. Don't look for refined literature, just go with it.
