Lord Bryan's daughter, Ellen, hates living in the Scottish Highlands. Her only true companion is her horse, Tilly. When a savage Scotsman sets fire to their storage shed and releases all their horses, Ellen races into the night to find Tilly. Ellen discovers that Donald Campbell is a wanted man, with a bounty on his head, put there by the Crown of England. Is she trapped in a cave with a murderer? But when Ellen hears his story, her entire world turns upside down. Could it be true that her English father is really a power-hungry tyrant? Has she been living on stolen land? Customer Reviews

Loved reading this book and I can't wait to read more of your books and I hope they are of highland.

Short and sweet. Not much Scottish background, just a short love story about two people who are on opposite sides of war.
