Synopsis

Lawrence Sutherland, Royal Navy Captain and the Viscount of Glenrith, has just struck a devilish bargain. To save his family from financial ruin, he needs the help of his closest childhood friend, Violette. They must work together so he can gain the hand of her wealthy but spoiled heiress cousin and make a mutually beneficial marriage—a sound business arrangement for them both. In return for her help, Lawrence offers Violette the one thing she covets most—freedom. With his help, she can leave England and her cruel family behind. But there is a vital flaw in this near-perfect plan. Violette Paflet de Castelmarou is secretly in love with Lawrence and has hidden it for years. Yet now she finds herself feeding him lines and coaching him through sticky social situations in order to win over her cousin. But when emotions get involved, hearts become inextricably entangled. When the time comes, will Lawrence be able to say goodbye to Violette or will he compromise her virtue and make her his forever? If he cannot have her for his wife, then he'll make her his mistress.â

The "hero" still has to prove himself after the end of this story, but he is on his way to redemption. He says and does some really hurtful things, and graphically deflowers a virgin-gasp-!!! I enjoyed meeting the characters, was glad the rake in the story could prove himself a friend, and loved the descriptions of settings and herbal knowledge.

Loved this book! The story was believable and you couldn't help but hurt for both of them. The intimate parts of the book were sweet, steamy and emotional. I can't wait to see what this author writes next! I very much enjoyed this book!

A friends to lovers story that was destined to happen Lawrence and Violette have to battle nearly everyone in their lives in order to have the sort of relationship both there hearts desire.

I felt like I knew these characters. The author brought them alive for the reader. The story read true and the storyline was captivating. Thanks to the author for writing this book!

If you believe in a Cinderella story, and I do, to the very heart-wrenching end. Loved the way the story flowed and not sure of the outcome to the very end. Adding Claire DuLac as a must read author.

Would be reading it again. A true love story with friends. Two points of view. Realistic issues. Sexy and romantic although historical. Happy ending.

Well drawn characters and an engaging plot made this an enjoyable read. The novel needs additional proofreading, as there are quite a few typos.
