Originally from London, Lizzie has worked and lived in Africa for 14 years. Starting out on trips across the continent as a tour leader on overland trucks, she has sat with a gorilla, slept amongst elephants, fed a giraffe and swum with a hippo and is now something of an expert on border crossings and African beer. For Footprint she is author of South Africa, Namibia, Kenya and Tanzania; has written the only country guide to Nigeria and the first city guide to Johannesburg for Bradt; is author of the AA Spiral Guide to South Africa and Africa Overland, a glossy look at the overland route from Nairobi to Cape Town, is co-author of the DK Eyewitness to Kenya, and has contributed to Turkey and Egypt for Rough Guides. She has written various online African destination guides for leading websites in the UK and US including Frommers, British Airways and World Travel Guide.net. When not on the road, Lizzie lives in Cape Town.

This book needs an update. I prefer the Bradt guide for Zimbabwe, which is newer. If you are going to Zim on a tourist visa, do not do anything outside of game parks. If you are going to work as a volunteer or mix tourism and that, get a business visa. Trust me, I know, as they interrogated me for 3 days and jailed me for 4 nights before clearing me of all charges and sending me home. The country is quite tense given likely 2013 elections. They are hosting the UN Tourism meeting in 2013 in Vic Falls - I think in March, but not sure.

Difficult to follow in a wonderful land with no roads and multiple languages, no great help for us
