Customer Reviews

I did read all 4 of these. The first 3 were good, better and down right great Ã Â Â'Â•....this one not so much!. Felt like it had been edited by 3rd graders. The author constantly mixed up sybielle and shayla, to very very different characters. It just felt off, like it had been "slapped tiger in a rush", and did the first book an injustice by not having been completely edited?? Or just completed?? Don't get wrong, I liked Lyric Curse(1), and loved both of the Sisera books and couldn't wait to read this one, but it was a total letdown.

Excellent job nonstop action keeps you turning page's trying to figure out what happens.Great job keep up the excellent work.Will be reading more of your books.

I have enjoyed the continuation in the series...watching Lyric grow into some of his powers by finding and bonding with his dragon, Kemoth.. His life is full of adventure as he tries to stay ahead of the dragon slayers. This is a very good story. I recommend it to anyone who loves dragons.

I enjoyed both books in this series, my only bad point there wasn't more,lol. good story line. lovers of Fantasy will enjoy these books.

Enjoyed all the books in this four series and awaiting book #5 with anticipation of enjoying more. The author is amazing and the stories keep your interest throughout the whole series.

This is the second part of Lyrics curse. I loved the story, it ended leaving me wanting more. Great read.

This follows along very nicely with the stoneblood Saga and the Hannah Half-Blood Saga all three series I was not able to put down once I started reading

A great story loved it, has everything, dragons, witches, magic good characters , plot was good with plenty of twists
