Kenneth Hagin is unashamedly a Full Gospel minister. His theology is based on the reality and work of the Holy Spirit, and it is in that context that he writes the book How You Can Be Led by the Spirit of God (Legacy Edition, Faith Library Publications, 2006). Admittedly, there are some teachings in the book that seem a bit out of the ordinary to mainstream Christianity, but the book's contents need to be seriously considered because most of what he says is clearly Biblically based. When we refuse to consider theological positions that are a bit outside our own experience, we risk "putting the brakes" on the Spirit. Jesus Himself "could not do mighty works in Nazareth because of the people's unbelief" (Mt. 13:58). Similarly in Mark 6, when a man who was deaf and had an impediment in his speech was brought to Jesus for healing, Jesus "took him aside from the multitude" to heal him. In a conversation Hagin had with Jesus about this text: "The Lord asked me, Why do you think I took him aside from the multitude?" "I don't know," "I said. "I've always wondered. The Lord said, "I couldn't heal him in that multitude. There was too much unbelief there. (How You Can Be Led By the Spirit of God by Kenneth Hagin, Faith Library, 1978, pp. 195-196.) Hagin distinguishes between the role of the body, the soul and the spirit and contends that much of people's efforts to be guided by God is based in their feelings (their body) or their mind (their rational thinking processes). But he maintains that a true Christian is one who is born again in the spirit and that spirit is where the Holy Spirit comes to dwell. Christians can be guided by God if they will be attentive to how the Spirit leads their spirit, in harmony with the Words of the Bible. For example, he heard what seemed to be a voice in his head saying "Today thou shall surely die" and so he prepared to die. But then repeatedly the Spirit brought a scripture to his mind "the 91st Psalm" "With long life I will satisfy Him and show Him my salvation." Eventually he realized it was God speaking, and that the devil had spoken a lie into his mind. He hadn't yet learned to distinguish between words of scripture from the Holy Spirit and Satan's lies. Then he rebuked the devil and rose up to continue living. (pp. 92-95). Guidance and recognizing the voice of God is a major issue for most people. Christians need to understand what the Bible says about this topic. As I read this book, I found much that challenged and perhaps corrected a mainstream view of the kind of walk with God where guidance is possible in the Spirit. For this Hagin is to be applauded and seriously studied. (4 stars.) ML Codman-Wilson, Ph.D. 5/4/2017

I can't say enough about this book. Kenneth E Hagin had a God-given gift of saying deeply profound things in a simple easy to understand way. I've read many books about "hearing" from God- but this one by far surpasses them all. He explains how to hear from God, how to recognize his voice, and the difference between mans inner voice and God's. He backs everything with scripture and sound doctrine. I especially loved his take on Fleeces. I highly recommend this book. Every Christian should read it. I read this and promptly ordered " The Believers Authority" which I found equally amazing. I've since ordered several more of his books and some videos.

I love this book. It came out of Brother Hagin's seminar on this subject. Today there are many voices in the world and many people claiming to be called to be the guiding voices to the Body of Christ. The Bible teaches that under the New Covenant, all who are born again by the Spirit of God, are themselves led by the Spirit of God. This is the primary way that God leads His children. The Bible also teaches that ALL guidance is to be evaluated in light of the Bible which is the inerrant Word of God in written form. If some guidance you have received from ANY other source cannot be confirmed by Scripture as well as the witness of your own spirit, do not follow it. Brother Hagin's teaching is very clear and scriptural. You should get it and read it.

Excellent book which answers basic questions about the difference between the spirit of a man, the body and the soul realm. It is a timeless book which I have read over the past 30 years. The message is the same because God never changes. I bought 24 to share with class.

How did I miss out on teachings like this for so many years. This is only one in a series of books to pursue God and his Kingdom in ways that the mainstream church has denied or suppressed. Many times this has happened unintentionally with a lack of understanding but it doesn't make is less incorrect. We can live a Spirit filled life as God directed, but just know it takes commitment.

Outstanding! A must-have for every believer's library by the foremost faith teacher of our time. It gives simple yet life-changing principles based 100% on the Word of God. As with all his books, it's full of personal experiences from decades in the ministry. I hate to call them "techniques" because they're more of a way to get in touch with your own spirit, but Bro. Hagin presents practical ways to train yourself to discern the Holy Sprit's leading. Learning to hear and obey the Holy Spirit can absolutely mean the difference between life and death!
