Ten On The Sled

Synopsis

A favorite children's song ("Ten on the Bed") gets a delightfully slippery, slide-y twist! In the land of the midnight sun, all the animals are having fun speeding down the hill on Caribou's sled. But as they go faster and faster, Seal, Hare, Walrus, and the others all fall off . . . until just the caribou's left, only and lonely. Now, a reindeer likes flying-but never alone, so . . . all the animals leap onto the sled again! This beloved story is new in board and abridged for a preschool audience, and it's ideal for reading, counting, and singing along with, over and over.

We have this book in softcover and loved it so I bought this hardback for my nephew. However, this version does not have the complete text. I was very dissappointed as the original text is not that long to not be included and makes it a much better read for children.

Wonderful, wonderful book. I purchased these books for a head start class here in our town, all 3 - 5 year olds. The government cut their funding, these are all kids who live below the poverty level, and the program can no longer buy books for the kids. The director is a huge advocate for literacy and it hit her pretty hard. So, hey, there are only 60 kids so if big giant has any extra books hanging around I know a good place to send them. Thank you for your help in getting the books. I dressed up as Mrs. Winter and read them. Everyone had fun.

Great book. fun to read.

I purchased this on here, after reading others positive reviews and am so glad we did! My kids loved this straight away and laughed as each character fell off the sled...the illustrations are really cute with a whimsical air. This is one of my 7 year olds favourites from the latest batch of books we got this week...you can even sing it to the "Ten in the Bed" tune...our kids recognized the similarity right off and they love the Ten in the Bed rhyme, so this will be popular...

Fun pictures and story, but some strange wording/pictures (i. e. 'Sunlit night,' calling a caribou a deer in the same paragraph, and labeling a picture of a ram as a sheep).

I found this charmingly written and beautifully illustrated book so much fun to read to my grandson. He's two and a half, went sledding with his mother and me, his grandmother, for the very first time and absolutely loved it. Now, Ten on the Sled is such a fun read for him as we count and talk about having all these animals joining him on his sled. Just a lovely children's book whether you live in snow country or not.

Sturdy board book for our one year old daughter. Each page has a short sentence on it- perfect length for a little girl who likes to rapidly turn to the next page. The sing-song nature of the story is fun too, and our little one loves to bounce along.

great book for word choice verbs read aloud
