God's War On Terror: Islam, Prophecy And The Bible

Synopsis

God War on Terror is one of the most important books ever to be written on End-Times prophecy. As Walid says, I wasted my college days taking courses on Psychology 101, English 101, and Sociology 101 but I never imagined Futurology 101! The bible, as I found it, is not simply a book on personal devotion as is commonly thought; it is a detailed roadmap with mountains of evidence that God exists. His design from time immemorial, regarding man's destiny, is filled with countless details about the future, especially the coming war with an Islamic coalition against Christianity and Israel. In fact, all of the references in the Bible to nations, against which God declares His war in End-times, you will find, are all Muslim.

From every area of the free world, strong evidence is reaching us of crimes and atrocities committed by Islamic fundamentalists in the name of Allah. A great many Muslims, "educated" people, and our elected leaders known about these crimes; those who do not know, do not know because they do not want to know. They do not ask questions because they are afraid of the answers. They fear the knowledge of what they are tolerating, but the ones among us who are open to seeking truth and justice know how to differentiate between criminals and their victims. The people of the civilized world now have to prove by deed where they stand; mere words will not be believed by a world that witnesses the crimes against God's people and my Christian brethren. In the past I have sinned greatly against God's people, but because of the grace I received through Christ, I am working to rescue them from injustice.

Walid Shoebat was born and raised in Bethlehem, Israel by an Arab father and an American mother. His paternal grandfather was an associate of Haj-Ameen Al-Husseini, the Grand Mufti of Jerusalem, who was an ally of Adolph Hitler, who conspired with the Nazis during the holocaust. Walid married a Catholic woman, and was challenged to examine the Bible in 1993 and compare it with the Qur'an.

People in the western world and mindset do not grasp nor understand Islam. This is especially true among many professing Christians in the churches across America. All too often I hear people who say they are of the faith of Messiah remark that Islam is a peaceful religion, which is what has been fed to the unsuspecting people claiming faith. Islam is not a religion. It is a political system, one that demands complete adherence to the Quran or the ramblings of their so called prophet Mohammad. The followers of Allah are forever accusing any and all others who do not follow their dictates for their governing controls of being narrow minded and ignorant, and many who do not have the capacity to discern what is happening all around them accept these accusations. Nothing is further from the truth, and several lies about how Islam can be coexistent with other forms of actual religious traditions, forms, theologies, and liturgies are precisely that, a lie. Islam may be compatible with modern cultural churches and their leaders but it will NEVER be compatible with true Christianity, those with a personal relationship with Messiah Jesus. There are amazing parallels between the prophetic historical writings of the 66 books of THE WAY and what is taught by Islam, but they are not really parallels in the strict sense but more a reverse side of what is spoken of in the books of THE WAY. True prophesy must actually come to pass precisely as it is spoken or written, that of Isaiah 53 and Psalm 22 are but two examples. The prophetic must have not only been fulfilled precisely, it need not to have come to pass within the life time of the prophet foretelling what would come to pass, it just had to be precisely what was foretold to be truly prophetic. The Holy Bible is the ONLY consistent source of prophetic utterances, and it is safe to believe that what has not yet come to pass will indeed come to pass at some time whether or not the humans know the time or date of these fulfillment's. None of what is called prophetic in the teaching of Islam has come to pass, but an adherence to the dogma makes it appear that some has. This can only be attributed to workings of Satan who is not omnipresent, omnipotent, omniscient, or any other attribute of the Living God Jehovah Elohim. I am writing this to the Body of Christ believers, to those who discern the Blessed Hope that the true believers are spared the coming time of wrath coming to the earth.

The Lord's promised return is nearing. It is evident that a swelling number of churches and congregants in America have distanced themselves from scripture, redefined sin, and fail to discern between the sacred and profane. Deceived church leaders across the land are slowly but surely undermining the foundations of the faith by proclaiming that certain abominations clearly revealed in Scripture till now, in the age of enlightenment, be acceptable to the Lord declaring all that is required is to believe that Jesus is the Son of the Living God. Even the demons believe that. God says and James writes in 2:19: You believe that there is one God. You do well. Even the demons believe and they tremble. What Walid Shoebat brings to the discussion is extremely helpful and urgently needed. He is a former follower of Allah and he speaks with authority on what Islam teaches and believes. The confusion between differing aspects of Islam is wholly the work of their god and Shoebat explains and reveals this god because he now has a personal relationship with Yahweh, the Living God. This is a most important read to anyone who does not want to be deceived into thinking that abominations being taught today by the deceived behind the sacred desk are acceptable before the Living God, and that the end days of deception crouching at the door desiring to have even the very elect. This is not for the faint of heart, nor for the cultural shallow believer, this work is for those who have a Knowledge of the Holy by His Word.

The most powerful and informative book I have read on the prophetic role of Islam. Walid Shoebat and Joel Richardson's God's War on Terror is a comprehensive analysis of Bible prophecy viewed through a Middle Eastern lens. The resulting picture will displease those who are wedded to the conventional but false Eurocentric view of prophecy with its European Anti-Christ and Global New Age/Roman Catholic false religion (Think "Left Behind"). Unfortunately, too many book-selling, prophecy "experts" have built lucrative careers on the old paradigm and are unlikely to give this book the attention it deserves. That is unfortunate and will only contribute to the Western World's (and the Church's) blindness. Not only is this a brilliant analysis of Bible prophecy, it is one of the most informative books I have ever read on Islam. And as a former intelligence officer who spent years studying the Middle East, that is no light compliment. So the politically correct of the religious, media and political world will also despise this book. Brainless liberals, religious and secular, ecumenicalists and Muslim apologists have been quick to give it one star and slander the authors. Yet it is one of the most powerful wake-up calls the church is likely to receive on the dangers and future terrors of Islam. Is Islam the religious and spiritual power behind Anti-Christ? You better believe it. Will the restored Caliphate fulfill the Beast Kingdom prophecies of Daniel and Revelation? It would be hard to argue against that once you've read this book. The only idea put forth in this book that I felt even a tinge of apprehension about was the identity of Mystery Babylon. I do believe you need to look west of the Middle East for that. But Shoebat and Richardson do make a good case for Mecca. I am also somewhat unconvinced about their "Battle of Gog and Magog" analysis. I respect their conclusions but my personal research into ancient place names and ethnicity suggest that Tubal, Meshech and Rus can be linked to Russia despite their ancient locations in Asia Minor. But in the main I find much to recommend in the authors' conclusions. This is not a light read at over 400 pages. But it's divided into topical sections so you can take a break without losing focus. Joel Richardson has written many books in a similar vein but it is really Walid Shoebat's book and personal story, with Richardson contributing research. Shoebat is a Palestinian Catholic raised as a Muslim. His unique, insightful perspective gives the book a tremendous punch. On the critical side, this self-published book is poorly edited. And some of Shoebat's "terrorist testimony" has been likely embellished. But he was a West Bank Palestinian born in Bethlehem. To suggest, as some critics do, that Shoebat was not indoctrinated into Jihad is a simpleton's fantasy. All Palestinian youth are indoctrinated into hatred of Israel, Jews and the West. I have experienced this first hand in my trips to the region. So ignore the critics and read this. It is highly recommended. If it hurts your feelings, you can always rent "Left Behind" on Netflix and go back into the "science fiction prophecy" preferred by conventionalists. But that would be foolish indeed.

This is a very well documented book coming from an X-Muslim. He is very forthcoming and doesn't hold back any punches. The truth is the light! The body of Christ needs to wake up and hear what this man is telling us about our Holy Bible and how it relates to what's happening in the world TODAY. My people perish for a lack of knowledge. Update: I am so thankful for having read this book. Thank you Walid! You, your ministry, and family are in my prayers. This book is very well researched regarding history, The Holy Bible, the Koran & its presentation. I also, believe that the Antichrist comes from the Middle East in the region of Turkey from what's provided in the Bible. This book brings so much clarity to that Prophecy & the geopolitical events of the day. I looked at the copyright date which I believe was 2008 and WOW look at what's happened since that time in the world. The only thing I didn't find in the book is about the role that the Pope will play during the end time. I believe that he has a role as well. Also, this book does not discuss the impact of technology being used during the end times. BUT, don't get me wrong. This book is a must read! It just might change your life. We all have a part to contribute and Walid Shoebat has certainly done his. Praise the Lord!

I am now in chapter 8 of this book, and as an Ex-Muslim, I can relate to a lot of the things that the author is saying, and I believe God's War on Terror, is an eye opener to a lot of people especially those who do not understand as to what is going on in Europe and the Middle East and Sharia Law. God's war on Terror reveals behind the scenes on what Islam truly is about and the lies that they tell the west regarding Islam being a peaceful religion, and what the Bible has to say about Islam.
