Customer Reviews

My 4yr old niece loves this book. She and I are learning Korean and she often asks me to read the book to her.

I've been learning Korean for awhile and I thought it was time to buy some Korean books to practice reading and writing. Other books were way too advance, so I decided to give this a try! I really like it. The story is in both Hangeul (Hangeul) and English (English). I've read this book a million times and it's help me with my pronunciation.

I have a child in my preschool class who just arrived from Korea. I was looking for bilingual books that would show print in his home language. I like that this is simple, uses real photographs, and has both English and Korean text.

We had a baby shower for a Korean student who was returning to Korea and I wasn't sure if their baby would be bilingual. So I checked for Korean board books and found this one that is bilingual. Everyone was so surprised that I found a Korean baby book and the expectant mother loved it.

Well received as a gift.

My Korean wife and I were sad to see that there is no romanization of the Korean words. We wanted to use this to teach our kids Korean, just as one of the first books they have to help them understand. Other than that it's a very cute book.

The book was A LOT smaller than I expected. I would guess that it is about 6" by 6", and it is made of a thick cardboard type material. There are a few pages that have flaps to open up. It is an extremely cute book, and I think it will be fun to read to by baby once she is here.

My child loves this book. It's incredible. He brings it to me and asks me to read it to him over and over again. We have so many books, but this one is his favorite.
