The Sesquipedalian Word Game: Act It! Draw It! Ad-Lib It! Guess It! (Laugh And Learn)

Synopsis

By playing this game, kids will learn a plethora (a lot) of words to make them sound sagacious (wise). Each player will become a sesquipedalian (one who uses long words) and enjoy some tomfoolery (playful behavior) in the process. Agelasts (those who never laugh) and abderians (those tending to laugh foolishly or constantly) alike will roar with pleasure and roll around with delight in the game for ages 12 to 100.Â

I'm a middle school language arts teacher for gifted students. The students love this game; it adapts well to small group or whole group play. It definitely increases vocabulary and cognition!! Highly recommend :)

This game has complicated rules, we are enjoying playing it 9yo,12yo and 45yo, but not sure if we are using it correctly. It is a fun worthwhile educational game. The kids like it the way we play as we couldn't figure out some of the rules. It is funner for kids over 12.

If you love word games, this is a MUST have!! Tons of fun for the erudite. Game is based on 5 syllable words . Surprisingly enough, there are a bunch of them out there when you start thinking about it.

With the rate at which we are losing vocabulary today as more and more people turn to the television and video games for entertainment and (I hate to say it but you know its true) education instead of books, here is a fun, addictive, educational game for kids and adults that will once again expand our vocabulary and the words that we use. The destruction of words is tantamount to the destruction of society in fine Orwellian fashion. If we wish to continue to stave off the bleak future of "1984" we must teach both adults and children a love for the written and spoken word again. This game will serve as a fine portal to which we can draw people back to reading books, of the non-pictorial kind. After all, think about it, when was the last time you read a good Tolstoy or Fitzgerald? Or even Shakespeare? So whether you draw it, guess it, act it, find it, ad-lib it, or pick it, you will enjoy this game with your whole family. Ages 12 and up.

Wonderful game - inventive and joyful.
