Table For One: An Inspirational Romance

Synopsis

Once happily single, Lauren Allred can't summon any joy over her unattached status after her younger sister's wedding—a problem when she runs a blog devoted to finding contentment and enjoyment in singlehood. In hopes of rejuvenating her spirit and attitude, she embarks on a new project for her blog. On the night of breaking up with his long-term girlfriend, Trevor Stockton meets Lauren and is instantly intrigued by her, but jumping into another relationship is the last thing on his mind—no matter how much he enjoyed their time together. When their paths cross again, will Table for One become a part of Lauren's past? A standalone inspirational novella from a USA Today Bestseller.

Customer Reviews

Ms Atwood, once again, delivers a lovely romance a Christian can read with complete confidence in not offending his or her eyes, mind, and conscience. I always enjoy the variety of settings in which Ms Atwood accomplishes her craft while engaging our attention.

A great story: entertaining, encouraging & illustrates a great life truth. We are happier when we acknowledge God's omnipotence & that God wants good things for us. A great read by a very good author.

Table for One by Leah Atwood is a great read for those who love uplifting, romantic reads with an inspirational thread. The story revolves around Trevor, who has broken up with his girlfriend (who he was in a serious relationship with) and Lauren, who is in a bit of a romantic funk due to her single status. Both Trevor and Lauren are in the perfect place to find love, although neither one knows it when they meet. This is a wonderful, inspirational romance that will make you smile and root for Trevor and Lauren.

My only complaint is that the book was too short. I fell in love with the characters from the first word right to the last. A great read. She's an awesome author.

I've enjoyed Leah Atwood's writing before, and this book was no exception. A light, easy read, with just the right amount of romance. Also contains the truth that God is indeed interested in every aspect of our lives, and is willing to lead us, if only we will obey Him. Highly recommended.

Sometimes when we date a person does not mean that they are the ones that we are intended to marry. It hurts for a while and life does move on as in the story. I was very glad to see the outcome and the events that occurs in this story. Only goes to show you that God is in control.

Inspiring romance touching on how singles may not always interact with others because of insecurities. The characters were relatable, believable and developed. The plot was a page turner with an unexpected resolve that I loved. Delightful summer read.

A story about older than twenty something kids finding love is always welcome. Add in a sweet and clean love story and I am happy.
