I have 2 copies of this book and use both regularly, which gives you an idea of how much I like this book and really anything by Caitlin Matthews. Even if Druidry (or any pagan religion) is of no interest to you, I still think you can enjoy the imagery and the daily meditations which put you back in touch with self, family and nature. Who can't use 15 - 30 minutes a day to do that in this busy world?

I have to say I read this everyday it does help get me in the right mind set to face the day gave as a gift. They were appreciative.

I love this book. Much better than anticipated, great for daily devotions! I recommend this book to anyone who would like a slice of peacefulness to their day. I love the end questions, they make you analyze your own life and come to conclusions for growth.

This book is a treasure trove of things to think on and do. I've been using it in one of my classes to provide the students with insight into themselves and insight into being Celtic.

I read this every morning to start my day. It helps you tap in to the world's energy on a daily basis.

I love the book and find the daily meditations helpful and enlightening in the journey of my life. Exploring my heritage and the Celtic wisdom that has existed and exists today is a beautiful gift. Thank you Caitlin Matthews

This is my second copy. I highlighted my first one so much I needed a fresh copy.
