Heritage Treasures: The Historic Homes Of Ancaster, Burlington, Dundas, East Flamborough, Hamilton, Stoney Creek And Waterdown (Lorimer Illustrated History)

Synopsis

The region's finest heritage homes come to life in glorious colour in the pages of this authoritative new book. Within the communities of Hamilton and Burlington are many fine heritage homes built in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. Together, Hamiltonians Susan Evans Shaw and Jean Crankshaw combed the streets and reviewed archive files to choose a selection that represents the many hundreds of heritage homes in the Hamilton/Burlington area. Author Susan Evans Shaw researched the history of each home and the people who have lived in it. Jean Crankshaw photographed each one on the day and time that would show it at its best. This book offers a selection of sixty of these homes, ranging from modest one-storey cottages to the very grand mansions. This architectural heritage is a cultural treasure that Heritage Treasures recognizes and celebrates.

Customer Reviews

"The flattering images, shot in optimal light and season from modest cottages and farmhouses to terraces and stately mansions pay tribute to the area's rich architectural history." (Michael Gordon Hamilton Magazine's Interiors)

SUSAN EVANS SHAW is an active member of Hamilton's literary community who became interested in local history. Her research into the history of some of the city's landmark heritage houses led to the idea for this book. JEAN CRANKSHAW began working as a freelance photographer in the late 1990s. She studied photography and digital imaging at Mohawk College and exhibits in galleries in Hamilton and Brantford. Her special interests are architecture and outdoor photography.
